Senior Access Program Application Packet

December 2018

Alaska Community Development Corporation (Alaska CDC) is a private non-profit agency that has administered state- and federally-funded energy efficiency and housing programs in Alaska, since 1979. This application packet is for the Senior Access Program grant.

- General information about the program is attached, such as where we administer the program, the type of improvements available, and the primary eligibility guidelines. Other guidelines and restrictions may apply.
- Please answer all questions on the attached application even if you don't think they apply to your situation. This information helps us better understand the current condition of your home and accessibility improvement needs. In addition, the state funding source requires information from households in its program.
- Signatures are required on pg. 4 of the application and on the attached Authorization for Release of information.
- Submit all requested proofs described in the application.
- Submit your application to Alaska CDC.

Residents in the Municipality of Anchorage may choose to apply through our partner, NeighborWorks® Alaska, 2515 A Street • Anchorage, AK 99503 • (907) 677-8490 • Fax: (907) 677-8450 • info@nwalaska.org • NMLS #232595. They also have applications.

After you submit your application and proofs, more information may be needed from you. However, submitting an application is the first step toward receiving assistance.

Application processing takes about 30 days. You will be informed of your status for the program by mail. Your patience is appreciated.

Application Packet Contents: This cover letter, Senior Access Program flier (2-sided), the Application (4 pp.); Authorization for Release of Information (2 pp.); a Reasonable Accommodation Request form, and a postage-paid return envelope

If any part of this Application Packet is missing or to make sure you have the most current version, contact Alaska CDC at 907 746-5680 x 1 (Palmer), 800 478-8080 x 1, or www.alaskacdc.org. Residents in the Municipality of Anchorage, may choose to contact NeighborWorks® Alaska at (907) 677-8490 or info@nwalaska.org.

SENIOR HOUSING ACCESSIBILITY MODIFICATION PROGRAM "Senior Access"

Funded by Alaska Housing Finance Corporation (AHFC) Senior Citizen Housing Development Funds

We provide home rehabilitation grants without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, handicap, or familial status.

- Alaska CDC serves the Kenai Peninsula, Kodiak Island, and Mat-Su Boroughs, Valdez-Cordova Census Area, Tok area, and the Municipality of Anchorage. Grants are awarded on a first-come, first-served basis except when it is most cost-effective to blend funds from several sources or for an emergency per Program guidelines.
- This grant improves the accessibility of homes so that qualifying seniors (55 years and older) who experience disabilities may live safely at home as long as possible. Home repairs are not eligible.
 Requested accessibility modifications must meet program guidelines (e.g., ramps, grab bars, barrier-free showers, lighting improvements, stair lifts, etc.).
- Eligible housing units are houses, cabins, condominiums, mobile homes, apartment dwellings, and small assisted living homes (five or fewer beds and licensed as required by the State).
 There cannot be a Notice of Default, Notice of Sale, or student loan lien filed against the property.
- The home to be modified must be the current, principal residence of the qualifying senior and the qualifying senior must agree to live in the home up to three years after the work is completed.
- Household income must meet current guidelines, as explained in this flier. Required proofs are explained in the application. (For assisted living homes, call Alaska CDC to determine how to calculate income.) The household also must show that it does not have funds of its own or from other sources to complete the modifications. Applicants cannot be behind on paying Child Support.
- This program is free to the senior and the legal owner(s) of the property. No more than the amount necessary to complete required accessibility improvements will be awarded. Maximum grant awards are:
 - $15,000 if the qualifying senior is the legal owner of the property.
 - $15,000 if the home is privately owned and the qualifying senior is related to the legal owner of the property and the legal owner of the property resides in the home.
 - $10,000 if the qualifying senior rents the property.
 - $7,000 if the qualifying senior resides in a state-licensed assisted living facility (five or fewer beds).
- If the home is a rental or an assisted living home, the legal owner(s) of the property must authorize any work to be completed under the program.

Income Guidelines

Households must meet the income guidelines under A or B below.

A. Household income is reviewed for the most recent 12 months before the application date.

A household automatically meets the income eligibility requirements if (1) an occupant receives Alaska Senior Benefits, APA/IA, ATAP/TANF, federally-funded Low-Income Home Energy Assistance, Food Stamps, subsidies from qualifying affordable housing programs (such as Section 8, Section 202, Section 811, Low-Income Housing Tax Credit, etc.) Supplemental Security Income (SSI) [Other forms of Social Security benefits are NOT the same as SSI.]; or (2) a resident currently is receiving services under the Medicaid Waiver; or (3) the household qualifies for the Alaska Weatherization Assistance Program.

- B. Households that do not automatically meet the income eligibility guidelines per "A." must undergo a full income review and meet the income limits below.
 - Household income is based on Adjusted Gross Income received by ALL residents for the most recent 12 months or the most recent calendar year.
 - Household income does not include: Alaska Permanent Fund Dividend; any assets drawn down as withdrawals from a bank; capital gains; Child Support; Combat Pay (Hostile Fire) and Military Family Allotments; dependent student income (i.e., earnings of full-time high school students or post-secondary students enrolled for at least 12 credit hours); dividends from a Native Corporation less than $2,000/year per resident; Federal Economic Stimulus Payments; federal non-cash benefits such as Medicare, Medicaid, Food Stamps, school lunches, and housing assistance; food or housing received in lieu of wages, including the value of food and fuel produced and consumed on farms; gifts; loans; lump-sum inheritances; non-cash benefits such as the employer-paid or union-paid portion of health insurance or other employee fringe benefits; one-time insurance payments or compensation for injury; one-time payments from a welfare agency to a family or person who is in temporary financial difficulty; one-time withdrawal from an investment account (You must certify it was a one-time withdrawal. It cannot be an annual one-time withdrawal); payment for foster children/adults or adoption subsidies; sale of assets such as property, house, or vehicle; scholarships for college or university; and tax refunds.
